

This space is intended for companies and stakeholders in the project DevalSimWeb, here they may find the products or reports of the results of this project, which is a joint initiative of collaboration between Latin American and European universities, sponsored by the European Union under the program Alfa III. The project aims, among other objectives, to reduce the dropout rate and increase the rate of employment of those college students who complete their college education through the development of skills required in the labor market.

{loadposition articuloregistro}

With the record in this space you will have access to reports and project results.

Thanks